Fellow HOG members,

I, Nanc Ulicki, would like to thank everyone for all the help with our 110th party it was a huge success and lots of fun. We have the best HOG Chapter ever!

The new 2014 Harley's are here! Stop by and see the new bold look and take one for a test ride. Our sales team can tell you all the new items on the bikes and all about the new bikes.

Our service department is taking reservations for winter storage. Our professional service team can talk to you about getting that special paint done or engine work over the winter. Your ride is always safe and warm with us.

Congratulations

Kevin Klee and Gean Swiatko were married on July 6, 2013.

Happy Birthday Air Force!

The leaves will be falling soon!

KHOG friends,

We will be accepting donations to help build our Chapter's gift baskets to benefit Ridin' to a Cure:

Sunday September 1st @ Uke's before bike raffle

Sunday September 8th @ Brat Stop before/after chapter meeting

These are just a few suggestions, but you are not limited to these items.

We will accept all donations!

Socks, Sweaters, Blankets

Soft, cozy, blankets. Going thru chemo, patients are often cold, they want comfort and warmth while resting and healing.

Accessories

Hats, scarves and earrings... It's tough enough having to go through treatment, but losing their hair and sense of femininity is one of the hardest things to overcome. Wearing cute hats and oversized earrings might make them feel like a girl again.

Books

Books are GREAT! Even better are NOT cancer related books. It's the quick, easy, fun reads that keep patients' spirits lifted up.

Thank you for your generosity!

Margarita
