Members,

It was suggested maybe we do a bake sale at the bike blessing.

How many ladies would be interested in baking something to sell at the Bike blessing on May 1st. We would need a lot of bake goods do make it worthwhile to have the bake sale. Please let me know by our April meeting.

Also I am going to need volunteers to take permission slips for the riders coming in for the bike blessing. Let me know if you are interested in helping. Time you need to be there will be posted soon. The winners of the Chili Cook Off are: Susan Lund, Perry & Laura Zamagne, & Janelle Dickinson
Congrats to all the winners!

Any lady of Harley that interested in helping put the tie blankets together after April 10th meeting are welcome to stay. We have six blankets to put together. If you're interested please bring scissors.

Also still want to plan an outing. Who would be interested in Going to Gin Blossom in Richmond IL to go shopping and then to lunch- let me know on a Sunday afternoon. Either email me at dnorwich@wi.rr.com or call me 262-287-8143.

Greetings from your Head Road Captain,

Spring and riding season have arrived. Our Breakout ride (Ride the Dust Off) will be on April 9th leaving at 10:00ish. The road captains and I are continuing to look for ride opportunities to share with everyone. Please feel free to shoot some ride ideas our way. Also the Baraboo Memorial Ride and Bike Blessing will be coming up in May. The Memorial Ride is to honor members who have ridden their last ride, as well as an opportunity to spend time with chapter members. Let's put some miles on this year.

Keep the rubber to the road.
